

It takes more than just a few people to raise a curtain.

Great performances need a great supporting cast. Please join PNC in supporting the efforts of The Cumberland Singers. Best wishes for a great concert!

About the Accompanist

Lindy Mack has been providing the accompaniment for the Cumberland Singers since 2001. He has played piano since the age of five and has been recording and performing professionally since 1975.

He has a degree in Piano Performance from the California State University, East Bay, and his experiences have taken him to various parts of the U.S. and internationally. He has performed and recorded with California groups The Magic Flute, the Jeannine Carol Project, Jupiter II, Memorabilia and Ally.

In addition to playing piano, he plays drums with the Singer Band of Mechanicsburg, where he occasionally conducts and plays the alto sax. He is also a keyboardist and vocalist for the local folk music trio, We3.
